Through the Lens of Nuremberg

The International Criminal Court at its Tenth Anniversary

museen der stadt nürnberg

To mark the tenth anniversary of the entry into force of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court, we will host the conference “Through the Lens of Nuremberg – The International Criminal Court at its Tenth Anniversary”.

Through the Lens of Nuremberg: The International Criminal Court at its Tenth Anniversary

Conference, 4–5 October 2012
Courtroom 600, Palace of Justice,
Nuremberg, Germany

The conference will focus, inter alia, on the role of the Nuremberg principles in the development of international criminal law and how these principles’ claim of universality can be furthered.

Speakers will include experts on the Nuremberg trials, representatives from the ICC and other international courts and tribunals, the African Union and Arab League, and a number of renowned international criminal law experts from academia, government and civil society.

Registrations for the conference are welcome.
