

Application to record an overseas birth in the register of births (section 36 of the Civil Status Act)

Receipt stamp

Note - identifying the competent registry office

The birth should be registered at the registry office in whose district the child, or the applicant if the child has never lived in Germany, is resident, or was last resident in Germany, or is habitually resident. A minor child is deemed to have the same residence as the parent(s) holding parental responsibility. Registry Office I in Berlin is only responsible if neither the child nor the applicant has ever been resident in Germany at any stage of their lives.

I/We declare that the information given above is true to the best of my/our knowledge and belief.

Declaration on the child's surname at birth (If the child has reached the age of 14, his/her consent must also be given.)
I/We have been informed about the options for naming the child and of the irrevocable nature of this choice and declare:
Sections 1617 & 1617 b BGB (German Civil Code) (German law)	<input type="checkbox"/> As joint holders of parental responsibility, we hereby decide that the child specified above shall use the surname (please insert): <input type="checkbox"/> _____ (of the father / 2 nd parent) or <input type="checkbox"/> _____ (of the mother / 1 st parent) We are aware that this choice of name may also be binding with respect to any further children of ours.
Section 1617 a BGB (German Civil Code)	<input type="checkbox"/> I, the sole holder of parental responsibility, hereby accord the child the surname of the other parent: I, the parent without parental responsibility, consent to the use of my surname. We are aware that this choice of name will not apply to any further children of mine/ours
If the child is to use a name pursuant to German legislation, one of these first two declarations should be made. The choice of law provisions under Article 10 (3) of the Introductory Act to the Civil Code may be used once only with the effect that, if you were to choose German law now, you would no longer be able to choose foreign law at a later date.
Art. 10 (3) EGBGB (Introductory Act to the Civil Code) (not German law)	<input type="checkbox"/> I/We decide that the law of (insert country name): (of which one parent demonstrably holds nationality (= their national law) shall apply to the naming of the child specified above. On the basis of this law, the child shall use/should use the following surname: I am/We are aware that this choice of law and name will not apply to any further children of mine/ours.

Art. 48 EGBGB (Introductory Act to the Civil Code)

The naming of my/our child is subject to German law pursuant to Article 10 (1) and Article 5 (1) of the Introductory Act to the Civil Code.

By the registration of his/her birth in the EU state _____ the child has acquired the following name (which may differ from his/her name pursuant to German law):

_____ (surname, including all parts)

_____ (a // first names) and

_____ (any other names such as patronymics or middle names)

I/We thus declare that for the future (from entry at the competent German registry office)

retroactively from the date of entry in the civil register of the other EU state (evidence of date of registration must be provided) the name acquired in the other EU state shall be deemed the child's surname at birth for the purposes of German law.

I am/We are aware that this choice of name will not apply to any further children of mine/ours.

Child's consent
(sections 1617, 1617a, 1617 b, 1617 c BGB,
Art. 10 (3) EGBGB and Art. 48 EGBGB)

The child has reached the age of 14 and agrees with the choice made above / consents to the declaration.

The child already has a surname and has reached the age of five. He/She agrees with the choice of the parents' married name and shall henceforth have the surname:

(Parents' married name)

The child already has a surname and has reached the age of five. He/She agrees with the change of name of the parent from whom he/she derives his/her name and shall henceforth have the surname:

(new surname of the relevant parent)

As legal representative(s), I/we assent to the child's declaration of agreement/consent.

For births prior to 1 April 1994:

The child's surname was entered in a German identity document/civil register issued between 1 September 1986 and 31 March 1994 (copy enclosed).

The child's surname was not entered in a German identity document/civil register issued between 1 September 1986 and 31 March 1994.

I/We apply for the following certificates:

	Quantity
Birth certificate (A4)
Birth certificate to insert into the family's "Stammbuch" (A5)
Multilingual birth certificate (A4)
Certified excerpt from the register <input type="checkbox"/> with notes

The fee charged by Registry Office I in Berlin for processing applications to enter an overseas birth in the register of births is 60 euros (irrespective of outcome). An additional 20 euros must be paid if foreign law is involved. The current charge for a birth certificate is 10 euros, for each additional copy of the same certificate ordered at the same time a fee of 5 euros will be charged. The fees charged by other German registry offices may differ.

A separate invoice for the fees will be issued by the competent German registry office. Please wait until you receive this invoice before transferring any money. Do not pay in advance!
